

The israeli–palestinian conflict, a never–ending story?

10:00 a.m. Introduction

Annick Allaigre, president of Paris 8 University

10:15 a.m.–12:15 p.m. Panel

Explaining the israeli–palestinian conflict chaired by Yves Sintomer, professor of political science, Paris 8 University

Bertrand Badie, emeritus professor of political science, Science Po Paris

Shlomo Sand, emeritus professor of History, Tel Aviv University

Jean–François Bayart, professor of anthropology and sociology, Ultramarine Chair, Genova Graduate Institute

2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. Panel

Analysis of the current conflict chaired by Ninon Grangé, professor of philosophy, Paris 8 University

José Brunner, emeritus professor of philosophy, Tel Aviv University

Étienne Balibar, honorary professor of philosophy, Paris Nanterre University

Jean–Louis Iten, professor of law, Paris 8 University

Osama Risheq, legal supervisor, Al–Quds University, Faculty of Law

4:15 p.m.–6:15 p.m. Panel

Imagine Peace

chaired by Sophie Wauquier, Vice–President in charge of international relations and international cooperation, Paris 8 University

Oren Yiftachel, professor of geography, Ben–Gurion University of the Negev

Mathilde Philip–Gay, professor of law, Jean Moulin Lyon 3 University

Elias Sanbar, writer, former Palestinian ambassador to UNESCO

On–line registration needed

<https://forms.gle/pxayxZuE4tTY7jB88>